

KELLERHALS.

ANWÄLTE | ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Kellerhals elects new partner

The partners of Kellerhals are pleased to announce that Daniel Emch became partner of the firm as of January 1, 2012.

Daniel Emch studied at the University of Bern (lic.iur 2000, Dr.iur. 2006) and the London School of Economics and Political Sciences LSE (LL.M. 2005). Before joining Kellerhals he served as a teaching and lecturing assistant at the Department for Economic Law of the University of Bern and as a law clerk at the Swiss Competition Commission.

Daniel Emch is the head of the competition and antitrust law practice group of Kellerhals. His practice focuses on competition and antitrust law, as well as on general corporate and contract law.

www.kellerhals.ch